MUSTERED OUT.

The Heroes of the War Fast Fading from Sight.

SOME STILL IN THE SERVICE.

Some in Civil Life, and Some for Whom the "Muffled Drum's Sad Roll Has Beat."

WASHINGTON, October 20th.—"Only 18 years ago that the Rebellion closed," said an old army officer to me the other day, "but the Generals of the war are fast going out of sight." Then he went on to say, "Meade, Thomas, Hooker, Garfield, Kilpatrick, Burnside and Halleck are dead. The next few years will see that list lengthened. General Grant is well on toward 70. He comes to Washington often, and walks quietly about the streets, with his cigar in his mouth, better dressed than when he was President, and looking as if life agreed with him. Sherman is 64, and he looks older, but the family is hardy, and he is likely to see 1900. The youngest of all the great leaders is Sheridan, now to command the army, and he is but 51. Sheridan was a Major-General at 30. Fitz-John Porter appears here every Winter, white-haired and broken in frame—a little old gentleman, who looks back to twenty years of disgrace. His old commander, McClellan, now a rotund man, with bending shoulders, has not changed much of late. He is rich, and entertains well in his New York City home, but the activity of his life is over. He likes still to tell of his campaigns. Pleasanton, the hero of a hundred cavalry fights, lives quietly here, and can be found any day reading the papers in one of the offices in Newspaper Row. His hair and mustache are white, and his voice gentle as a woman's. You can say the same of Rosecrans, the idol of the Army of the Cumberland. He and his wife live, almost unnoticed, on

CAPITOL HILL

During the time he spends here performing his duties as a California Congressman. His complexion is like a youth's and his hair, with a military cut, white as snow. The man who has commanded 100,000 men at Chicamauga seems abashed at the confusion in Congress, and seldom rises to speak. Generals Hawley and Logan are the two other most distinguished Generals in Congress. Both are 57 years old, but neither has a gray hair. General Rosecrans will be re-enforced this Winter by an old companion in the Western armies—General Slocum, of Brooklyn. He has been in Congress before. He served, I believe, four years soon after the close of the war. General Sickles is practicing law in New York, and Stoneman is Governor of California. Doubleday, who was in Fort Sumpter when it was fired upon, lives in New York, and is writing a book; while Humphreys, Hunter and Crittenden may be seen almost any day about this city, where they own fine houses and live handsomely on the retired list. Fremont is no longer rich. He and his wife, Jessie Benton Fremont, are forgotten in crowded New York. The General whom the Vermont troops worshiped, George J. Stannard—with one arm gone and a half dozen wounds—sits up at the Capitol during the session, tending the door of the members' gallery of the house. The Democrats promise that he shall not be disturbed. He is so inoffensive that the pushing women almost over power him on days when a crowd visits the Capitol, and yet he saved the day at Gettysburg, and fell with three wounds while leading a forlorn hope at Petersburg. McDowell is on the retired-list; Don Carlos Buel runs an iron furnace in Kentucky; Banks is a United States Marshal; Hancock, Schofield and Pope are still Major-Generals, but the last of them will retire in three years. General Howard is at Omaha, a Brigadier. General Terry is the youngest of the Brigadiers who won fame in the war. With good luck he will succeed Sheridan in command of the army.

GENERAL WRIGHT,

With benevolent face and patriarchal beard, has turned from war to projects of river and harbor improvement. Gilmore, Parke and Weitzel, once commanding corps and armies, are now in charge of light houses and fortifications Grierson, the famous cavalry General of the Western armies, is broiling in Texas with the mounted colored regiment which he commands. They are all getting well on toward the downward track. In ten years there will not be a general officer of the war in active life

Looking over some old papers in the Pension Office, the other day, the difference between the old-time and present methods of granting aid to soldiers became very noticeable. Now, almost any soldier easily obtains relief; then it was a matter involving the clearest proofs. In some cases even abject poverty seemed necessary before the Government interposed to give relief. One case, from the long correspondence and interesting character of the claimant, is a sample of many. The papers are very voluminous. They begin in 1819, when Colonel Paul Dudley Sargent, of Sullivan, Me., asked for a pension. His memorial showed that in 1772 he lived in Gloucester, Mass., where he organized a body of minutemen. From his forwardness in the independent cause he was blacklisted and compelled to flee to Amherst, N. H. Here he organized a regiment of militia, and so ready was he that, before daylight on April 19th, 1775, he was on his way to Concord with his command, which afterward became a part of Washington's army, and was the first body of troops to enter Boston after the evacuation the next March. Here he fitted out the first privateers of the Revolution. It carried nine guns and took several prizes, with the proceeds of which Sargent paid his troops out of his own pocket. In June he marched to New York, was in all the battles there, so that his regiment was reduced from 727 men to 197. He took part in the battle of Trenton, and soon after resigned his commission for ill health, but kept on fitting out privateers, of which he sent

FORTY-SEVEN SAIL TO SEA.

In later years his property was lost by misfortunes, and at the time spoken of he was reduced to poverty, living upon the scant proceeds of a ferry at Sullivan, the sole use of which had been granted by the county. The pension was granted at first but was taken away, on the score that he was rich. He made an indignant protest, and filed an inventory at the War Department, by which it appeared that he was worth $1270, every little item of household furniture appearing scrupulously in the schedule. The pension was refused although ample testimony was shown that the old veteran, now 76 years old, owed about $2000. In 1823 he made another effort. His ferry had been superceded by a bridge, his occupation was gone, and the schedules annexed to his inventory showed that the scanty property had diminished to $255, of which $200 represented the tumble down house in which he lived, with his wife, three maiden daughters and a grand-daughter. His letter to John C. Calhoun, the Secretary of War, was most pathetic, and re-inforced by the testimony of judges of various courts, to his deserving condition, and of creditors to debts ten times the value of his home. Still nothing was done. The hand writing of the correspondence showed the growing infirmities of Colonel Sargent, who in 1826 sent in trembling characters "the third and last schedule to be made by Paul Dudley Sargent, a colonel in the revolutionary war. I have not any property, nor any income whatever. The fact is, I have been living for four years on charity and the sale of my furniture, which is now entirely gone." At last, convinced that he was not too rich to be pensioned, at the age of 81 years, and after he had waited in bitter distress so long, the officials granted him $20 a month, but too late to be of much good, for he died soon after. That is the record of the pension given so grudgingly, and withheld illegally from the man who led the first New Hampshire troops to Concord, fitted out the first privateer, and gave all his private means without stint to the cause of independence. It is in striking contrast to the prodigal bounty now shown in dealing with the yet young survivors of the late war.—Boston Advertiser.

POLITICS IN THE SOUTH.

General Chalmers is at the head o a movement in Mississippi looking to the formation of a new party in the Southern States, and ultimately throughout the whole country, with the hope that the movement will achieve prominence in time to nominate a Presidential ticket in 1884. It is proposed to unite in this party the anti bourbon element of the Democratic party, with a platform of principles broad and liberal enough to catch the colored vote, and owing to the manner in which party machinery and elections are now manipulated as the Republicans are in a hopeless minority in most of the southern States it is believed they would gladly embrace an opportunity of this kind to defeat the Bourbons. It must be confessed that the idea is not without some show of reason, and it is not only possible but highly probable that a movement of this kind, if properly and judiciously managed, might be the means of controlling local politics in the South, but as a National movement there is no possible show for success, at least not at the present time. Northern Democrats would not take kindly to such an innovation upon their "time honored" principles, while Northern Republicans are not, nor are they likely to be in the near future, driven to the extremity of joining in a movement of that kind in order to be heard. The public however will be better prepared to judge of the probable success of Mr. Chalmers and his co-laborers when they shall have promulgated a code of principles which are to govern their political actions. That a reform in politics in the South is sorely needed is no longer a debateable question, and it may be that General Chalmers has struck a popular chord, and at the proper time.

NEWS NOTES.

A Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times is responsible for the statement that ex-Speaker Keifer thinks Gen. Sherman is the most available man for the Republican Presidential nomination.

The Treasury statement for October is satisfactory; $10,304,798 of the public debt was paid during the month, which, considering the falling off in revenue consequent on the amended tariff and internal revenue law, is more than might reasonably have been expected.

A crank hovering about the White House, making inquires concerning the habits of President Arthur, was put aboard a train and sent out of Washington last Saturday.

The following notice appeared in the Paris Radical, of October 1st, in regard to Mlle. Emma Nevada, or Miss Emma Wixom, a graduate of Mills' Seminary and a pupil of Professor Kelleher: Mlle Nevada resumed last evening the series of her debuts as Mignon. The success of the young American singer has been very great. She manages with precision and skill a voice slightly shrill, which she does not try to force; she expresses with perfect taste and admirable shade. As an actress she is irreproachable, and has very well comprehended the changeful character of Mignon, which is by turns sad and gay. Mlle. Nevada is less agreeable to hear when she speaks, and her professor of French pronunciation has yet much to do. The entire success of the evening was due to Mlle. Nevada, who, at first somewhat timid, could not be reassured by the frequent and hearty applause.

NOTES FROM THE EASTERN ELECTIONS.

The Massachusetts Election.

BOSTON, November 6.

The weather throughout is favorable for a very heavy vote in this city. At 1 o'clock, ward No. 3 gave Butler 753; Robinson 274. In ward 10, at 11 o'clock, the Republican majority was 575. In Newton, the indications favor a Republican majority.

The first complete returns received are from Hall. Butler received 57; Robinson, 39. The Republicans gain four over last year.

WALTHAM, No

The Republicans claimed a majority in Dedham. At 10 o'clock the Republicans had 250 and Butler 100. In Mamin, at noon, the Republicans had 150 to 40 for Butler.

LOWELL, November 6.

At 10 o'clock the votes stood, Butler 151, Robinson 257.

At Gloucester, at the same hour, Butler had 691 to Robinson 122.

WORCESTER, November 6.

The election is passing off quietly and a large vote is being polled. The Republicans are especially active and confident. In Taunton the indications point to the largest vote ever known, with large Republican gains.

LAWRENCE, November 6.

The vote is unusually large, with a majority indicated for Butler of about 1,500.

At Fall River a total vote of 6,000 will be polled; the State will be close. The Republicans claim that they will be able to reduce Butler's majority to 800. Precinct 5, in Ward 11, of Boston, which gave Bishop 250 last year, showed at noon, 500 plurality for Robinson. Returns from other precincts in the various wards show considerable Republican gains over last year. An unprecedented number of votes were cast early in the day. The ward, which has many colored voters, at 11 o'clock, showed a total of 602 for Robinson to 350 for Butler.

New York News

ALBANY, November 6.

The election is quiet. A heavy vote is being polled. In Republican wards Carr is being freely cut and the indications are that Maynard will run ahead of his ticket in the city. The Democratic State Central Committee, at 1 o,clock, sent out the following to prominent Democrats in the county: "Maynard is reported as running ahead of his ticket in the county."

Election News From Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Min., November 6.

The election in this State to-day is for Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General, and a Railroad Commissioner in each county. An unusually large vote is being polled. The main fight is between the candidates for Governor. The Republicans renominated the entire present State officers with Governor Hubbard at the head of the ticket. The Democrats nominated a Norwegian, A. Biermann, and as over four fifths of the Republican voters of this State are of that nationality, the Democrats hope to make a close fight for the office. Governor Hubbard had a majority of 20,000 the last time. It is said that the Republicans claim 10,000 for him this time and the Democrats concede 5,000.

Small Favors Thankfully Received

PETERSBURG, Va., November 6.

The election is passing off quietly, both parties are polling a heavy vote. The Democrats claim if they get 400 negro votes that they carry the city.

A Light Vote at Pittsburg

PITTSBURG, November 6.

The election is passing off quietly; no disturbances are reported, and up to noon a very light vote was polled.

The result of the election in Ohio seems to brace up the southern Bourbons to a realization of the possibility of a Democratic victory ahead. They are beginning to give negroes to understand that a Democratic control don't mean unalloyed happiness for them. It may turn out that a Democratic victory in Ohio, in October, 1883, was the only thing that made possible a Republican victory throughout the country in 1884. Democratic victories, for the last twenty years, have been in the nature of "disguised blessings."—[Adrian (Mich.) Times.

BLAINE'S FINANCIAL LOSSES.

A Report that the Senator Lost Heavily in the Recent Northern Pacific Flurry.

A Washington correspondent telegraphs: Stilson Hutchings, who has quite intimate relations with Blaine, speaking about that statesman's financial losses, said: "I was given the other day an explanation of that which to many of his friends, has been almost inexplicable—Blaine's motive or object in leasing his house almost before he had occupied it. Without circumlocution, can be expressed in one word—heavy losses in Northern Pacific Railroad stock speculations. Blaine has not danced attendance on the stock market during the last half dozen years of the prevailing speculation, but in common with a great many others, he thought there was intrinsic merit and poofit in Noathern Pacific securities under Villard's apparently sagacious manipulation. It is charged that Villard saw the storm coming, and got well under cover before it broke. Indeed, it is asserted by many, that he made as much money out of that flurry, as he was expected to lose; but whether this is true or not, the lame ducks are very many, and among them politicians and officials are numerous, and I could put my finger upon fifty men in Washington, prominent in public circles, who have lost all the way from $500 to $10,000. Whether Blaine is in this category or not, I do not know, but information comes from one who ought to be well informed, and it is, I am sure, veracious. If true, it is to Blaine's credit, that when retrenchment was necessary, he entered upon it without timidity, or apparent care for what Mrs. Grundy, or the rest of the world, might say about it."

A Turn of Fortune.

Mr. Irvin Ayres, of Oakland, says the Red Bluff Cause, paid our town a visit last Sunday, remaining until Monday. Many old residents of Red Bluff will remember Mr. Ayres as having been a resident of the town in early days. In 1854, he, in partnership with a man named Bill Gleason, ran a livery stable here, and failed in business, when Gleason left the country and Ayres had the bills to pay, which he did. He also at one time kept a saloon here, also had a liquor store and at one time ran a hotel at Tehama. None of his business ventures proving very successful, Mr. Ayres a few years ago went up to Fort Crook. There he made the acquaintance of several influential army officers, and through their friendly offices and the influence of his brother, Gen. R. B. Ayres, a prominent officer during the Rebellion, was enabled to open a sutler's store at Fort Bidwell. From the time he began business there Dame Fortune has smiled upon him, until now he is enabled to retire with a fortune and take life easy in his declining years. He was at one time a candidate for the Legislature from Modoc and Siskiyou counties against Lieut. Gov. Daggett, carrying Modoc by 45 majority, while Siskiyou gave Daggett only 90 majority. His old friends who remember the reverses and hard knocks he received in the earlier business ventures will be glad to hear of his success and prosperity.

Hawthorne Items

The Hawthorne Herald of last Saturday says:

Both mills at Belleville are in active operation.

The furnace at Swansea started up last Tuesday.

Wild ducks are plentiful in Owens lake. A few geese are shot now and then.

The mill at Elna will soon be ready to crush ores. The boarding house is ready for use.

The Teals Marsh Borax Works are making and shipping borax to their full capacity.

Considerable quantities of salt and borax are being taken from the old Rhodes' Marsh, now owned by the railroad company.

Considerable prospecting is going on around the old Marletta District, several shipments of high grade ore having been made of late. Things look as though the camp may come to the front again.

On last Sunday A. L. Moore found and located a magnificent ledge of very rich galena. The mine is about one mile northwest of the Mexican camp. Mr. Moore has deeded 735 feet of the new find to Antone Costello. The mine is known as the Silver Wave. On the same day Fredrick Smyth located an extension of the same mine, and subsequently deeded the one-half interest to Antone and Jerry Costello. The parties are very sanguine that they have the richest find in the district.

ALASKA.

The Power of the Government Thought to be Inadequate to Control the Natives.

The collector who has been for one year and a half in Alaska, in the service of the Royal Museum at Berlin, is en route for home. He is a native of the very north of Norway, and has spent some years in Greenland and other Arctic countries. He understands the language of the Esquimaux thoroughly, and has, therefore, been able to travel among them in Alaska with excellent advantages for observation. He says the interior of the Territory is very wild and rugged, and the people more numerous than is likely to be agreeable to gold hunters. He declares that the temper of the natives is such that there is certain to be a disastrous outbreak before many months, which will result in the massacre of the whites at the mining camps and stations. The power of the Government he believes to be entirely inadequate to preserve order or control the natives, solong as but one vessel is kept on that coast. He takes a very gloomy view of on affairs in those regions, and does not believe we realize the situation.

181 WEST TENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 11, 1880,

MESSRS. SEABURY & JOHNSON,

Gentlemen:—Like most of my profession, I am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine. Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard, however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experiment with it personally.

find BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action.

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients, have convinced me that there is no other single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named.

Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect.

Very truly yours,
H. H. KANE, A. M., M. D.

The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents.

An Old Soldier's EXPERIENCE.

"I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable qualities of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

as a cough remedy.

"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a severe cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

"I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me, for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases. J. W. WHITLEY."

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

What is Being Said and Done in a Small Way.

Another storm is brewing.

There are not any eggs in market.

Mr. Merrill, of Long Valley is in town.

Arthur Dewitt is in from Warner Valley.

Geo. D. Winters is in from Round Hole.

Uncle Tommy Freehill is with us again.

J. P. Foulks was down from Verdi yesterday.

The Lewis Brothers, of Sierra Valley, are in town.

Mrs. H. Nugent, of Wadsworth, is at the Golden Eagle.

Lake Tahoe has fallen four feet in the last two months.

M. Ayer returned last evening from a business trip to Carson.

Henry Howard, a former resident, is up on a visit from Sacramento.

John Hearsch, is testing the virtues of a buttermilk diet, in Long Valley.

Captain Matt Canavan is again rheumatically confined to his San Francisco bed.

The Storey county Grand Jury is busily investigating the late robbery case.

Joseph Mitzger's two large freight teams left yesterday loaded with freight for Bidwell.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment of the lower Court in the Brown-Evans case.

Charlie Harwood, one of the old time teamsters of this section, came over from Empire yesterday.

Rich and extensive soda and borax deposits have recently been discovered near Woodruff, Esmeralda county.

A notice from the Assignee of the estate of M. Raphael, insolvent, will be found in our advertising columns.

A number of Oakland horses which were in attendance at the Carson races were shipped below last evening.

A man who was prospecting in Willow Creek, Quinn River Valley, the other day panned out a genuine ruby about the size of a goose-shot.

The following county officers report their fees for October as follows: Recorder $141 25, Clerk $175 60, Sheriff $158 50, Assessor $15 80.

R. H. Lindsay was called to Virginia last evening by a telegram. Probably wanted to defend or assist in prosecuting some of the treasury thieves.

Gov. Kinkead and wife came down from Carson last evening. Mrs. Kinkead expects to meet a sister coming from the East on this morning's train.

The Sierra Nevada Wood and Lumber Company have closed down for the season. They have during the past season, run out 50,000 cords to Lake View.

At the request of Treasurer Nevin the Commissioners of Storey yesterday appointed A. L. Edwards Deputy County Treasurer. "A dishonest man would not be likely to let anybody else appoint his deputy.

The Carson Index is mistaken, the JOURNAL thinks, in its statement that "there is talk that the way is being prepared so that Mr. Yerington will soon take hold of the Nevada and Oregon Railroad and push it to completion. This would be the best thing that could happen for Reno."

Produced Character.

D. M. Gloster is in town. In a conversation on the subject of gentlemen wantingly forfeiting good name and character for wealth, General Rittrell told Gloster that having no character to lose he need have no fears on that score, whereupon Gloster significantly produced a handfull of twenties to prove the assertion false. The evidence was so overwhelming that the General acknowledged his error.

ORMSBY OBJECT

A New Point in the Salary Law.

The expense incurred by Washoe county in the Combs trial as ascertained by the Board of County Commissioners and which will be presented to Ormsby county for payment, amounts to $1,135 75. The only item in the account to which there is likely to be any objection on the part of Ormsby is that wherein fees are charged for the services of the Washoe county officers. It is understood that the District Attorney of Ormsby, and possibly the Commissioners, may object to the payment of that portion of the bill on the ground that the officers are working under a salary which would have been paid by Washoe whether this service had been performed or not. The position is certainly untenable, and after a little reflection the Ormsby county authorities will hardly insist upon it. The salary law has nothing whatever to do with the fee bill. The fee bill is as much in force to-day as it was before the salary Act was passed, with this difference: before the adoption of the salary law officers were at liberty to collect fees or not, but the salary law changed this and made it the duty of all officers named in the Act to "collect and safely keep all fees, percentages, and compensations of whatsoever nature and kind allowed them by law for services rendered by them or their deputies," and on the first Monday in each month to pay the same to the County Treasurer.

Under the old fee system the officers took chances on collecting fees to pay for their services, whereas under the salary law the county guarantees a stipulated salary and takes chances on collecting fees to pay it. The only service performed by an officer for which he is not entitled to, nor required to collect fees, is for services performed for his county. So far as the present case is concerned, Ormsby county stands in the position of an individual, and must be expected to pay for all services asked for and received, with perhaps this difference: had the work been performed for an individual the officers would have been compelled to collect their fees in advance, while in this case they are excused for not doing so.

Taken Home.

A sister of Henry B. Mears, the man recently sent from Humboldt county to the Asylum, arrived here from Philadelphia Monday, for the purpose of taking her brother back home with her. Supt. Bishop delivered him up to her, and they both left for the East yesterday morning. The sister was on her way to meet her brother, having arranged to do so at Denver. She arrived there on time, and after waiting a few days learned that Henry had gone crazy and committed to Reno, so she hurried on to this place. Mears is well connected. He has a brother who is a Professor at Jefferson college.

Well Merited Success.

There isn't a business house in all the land that comes nearer keeping up with the times, or that makes a better or more creditable showing at the present moment than the jewelry establishment of William Goeggel. His large assortment of elegant and costly jewelry would make a creditable showing in a city of ten times times the pretentions of Reno. By keeping a large and well selected stock and by selling at living prices he has justly earned an enviable position in his line of business, and hence merits his success.

Bondsmen Withdrawing.

Notices of withdrawal from the bond of Nevin, of Storey, have been filed by W. H. Clarke, Frank Fredricks, J. S. Kaneen, M. C. McMillan and A. M. Cole. Messrs. Kaneen and Fredricks were released at the last meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, but the others cannot be released until the next meeting of the Board, on November 24. In the interval, the Treasurer will have to file supplemental bonds, and if this is not done by the 24th instant the office will be declared vacant.

Choice Cigars and Tobacco.

For the best brands of imported cigars, the experienced old smoker will always go to the store of E. Meyer, where he can get a cigar on which he can depend. It is the same in smoking tobacco. At this house you get all the choice and reliable brands. He keeps on hand Yankee notions, fancy cutlery, playing cards and all goods that would be looked for in a store of the kind. *

ASYLUM MATTERS.

Charges of a Serious Character Preferred.

Dr. H. Bergstein, late of the Nevada Insane Asylum, placed the following charges before the Board of Insane Commissioners, at Carson, Tuesday:

To the Honorable, the Board of Commissioners for the care of the Indigent Insane of the State of Nevada—Gentlemen:

Believing it to be the duty of every citizen who may become cognizant of the mismanagement of any State institution, or of the abuse of any of the unfortunate wards of the State, to place the facts before the proper authorities, that the wrongs and abuses may be corrected, I desire to place the following charges against the Superintendent of the Nevada Insane Asylum before your honorable body for investigation: First, That he is utterly unfitted for the position that he occupies, by reason of the fact that he appears utterly ignorant of the modern ideas for the care and treatment of insane persons; his idea of an asylum being rather that of a prison with wrought iron cells and barbed wire fencing to lacerate the flesh of such insane persons as might make an effort to escape by scaling the yard fence, and gagging such patients as used vulgar language, etc. Second, That he has no business qualifications, and by reason of such lack of knowledge the funds devoted to the improvement of the asylum and the care of its inmates, have been partly squandered. Third, That he has been guilty of malfeasance in office, having converted the property of the State to his own use. Fourth, That he has, and now employs persons in various capacities in and about the asylum, whom he has declared to be, and who are unfitted to be employes of that institution. Fifth, That the patients during his administration, have been barbarously, cruelly and inhumanely treated, and that such treatment was encouraged by the words and acts of the Superintendent; and it was for the reason set forth in this charge, that I, on the 20th day of last July, resigned the position held by me at the asylum; and it was only on the positive promise of Dr. Bishop (given in the presence of two of the leading citizens of Reno), that the wrongs complained of should be corrected, that I reassumed my position. Sixth, That he lacks administrative ability, and by reason of a lack of discipline, the lives of the inmates of the asylum are in danger. And by reason of these acts and shortcomings of the Superintendent of the Nevada Insane Asylum, the noble charity to which these funds of the people have been devoted, utterly fail to accomplish the results desired. All of which is respectfully submitted,

H. BERGSTEIN.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of November, 1883,
PIERCE EVANS, Notary Public.

The board called a special meeting for Friday next.

CARSON ITEMS.

[From the Appeal.]

Mr. Cohn offers to give $250 toward a State Fair to be held hereafter in Carson. Will some other live man say something?

Fred Bullock, late steward at the Ormsby House, recently inherited $3,000 from a deceased relative and is now going to take a look at the world.

On Sunday Sheriff Brown, of Storey county, landed a youth named James Ward at the State Prison, to be confined eighteen months for shooting a Chinaman.

Mrs. B. F. Foster has presented to the State Library two large and elegantly printed volumes devoted to the Geological Survey of California.

B. H. Carrick, the defaulting Treasurer of Storey county, is said to own one of the finest farms in Oregon. He must have made a raise very early after his release from the State Prison.

Through the excellent management of District Attorney Torreyson the last trial of Combs, the murderer, only cost $1,200. It was estimated at first that the trial would cost $3,000 at least.

Admitted To Probate.

The will of Frank Perkins was admitted to probate yesterday. Mrs. Perkins is the executrix. C. W. Jones, W. D. Wagar and J. F. Fitzgerald, were appointed appraisers. H. B. Cossitt was appointed the attorney to represent the absent heirs. The estate is estimated at $7,000.

A Card.

William Pinniger tenders his best thanks to his numerous friends, and the public generally, for the very liberal support accorded him in the past, and he begs to inform them that he has again effected a co-partnership with R. E. Queen, at the old stand, and respectfully invites a continuance of their patronage. The new firm have added largely to their stock of drugs, chemicals, patent medicines, wines and liquors for medicinal purposes; toilet and fancy articles, etc. In the dispensing departments they make a specialty of physicians' prescriptions and family receipts, bringing to their already large experience the latest achievements in scientific pharmacy, and are prompt in filling all orders intrusted to them.
